all together
remove the
breath to
full "ah"

"ss"

the idea here is that anyone can skip a beat.
and anyone can add a very short, high "dii".

we need to figure
out a cool
transition here

10 repeats, with each repeat exploring the auto-tune more and more the swelling and fading of the word "wow" should remain very dramatic each "wow" grows from nothing and returns almost to silence.
we will work on this together as it's still quite open
